FIRST-CLASS EDUCATIONAL PROTEST.

THE STABLISHMENT, near Hanover, Germany.—

The Rev. A DAMMANN, D.D., F.R.S., of Hamela, a town meet delightfully situated on the Weser, near Hanover, receives into his establishment the sons of American gentlemene, who are thoroughly prepared for the Universities or commercial pursuits. Besides the Classics, Mathematics, and all other relences and accomplishments, the pupils are most exercitly instructed in the French and German languages, which are constantly spoken in the family. The proper moral and religious training, as well as the promotion of the comfort and health of the pupils, are chipets of Dr. DAMMANN'S most watchful care. Particular attention is also paid to the perfection in English composition, for which purpose a graduate of one of the English Universities is emaged. Prospectuses and myre ample information can be obtained on application to THOMAS H. MOORE No. 63 Trinity Buildings, Broadway, New York.
